

PRACTICALLY CERTAIN UNITED MINE WORKERS WILL REJECT PROPOSAL

It is Understood That Officials Will Recommend Refusal of the Government's Offer—President May Risk Impeachment to Operate the Mines in Case of Emergency

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 14.—A practical certainty exists tonight that the United Mine Workers will refuse President Harding's offer of arbitration to settle the coal strike, both bituminous and anthracite.
John L. Lewis, president of the union, William Green, secretary, and Philip Murray, vice president, at a formal conference with President Harding and Secretary Davis determined, it was understood, to recommend a refusal of the government's offer to the union policy committee which will meet here tomorrow.
The expected refusal, it was said, will apply to the anthracite mines as well as the bituminous, although employment in the anthracite region have accepted the president's offer practically without condition. The union viewpoint is that the anthracite fields, with their potential production of two million tons of coal a week, should not resume work, because this coal supply, with non-union production of bituminous, would lessen public pressure for a strike settlement.

ANARCHIST FIRES IN PARIS POLICE PERFECT FRIDAY

It is Taken for President Millerand—Is Saved from Crowd

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, July 14.—Armand Colin, newly appointed police chief of Paris was fired upon as he was returning from Long Champs Bastille during the celebration, the assailant an anarchist named Gustav Bouvet, striking him for President Millerand.
The poor aim of Bouvet saved M. Naudin, all three shots fired missing their mark. President Millerand, riding in the parade of state, was just behind the prefect's automobile.
The anarchist was saved from an infuriated crowd by the prefect's guards, who rushed up and freed him under arrest. Later he was taken to the prefect's residence, where he was held until he was released.

One hears new rumors of a "voice" he said, "My voice is too low to be heard, so I used the microphone."
The young anarchist will be arrested tomorrow charged with an attempt to commit premeditated and wilful murder, which entails the death penalty. Search of the room he occupied in a hotel revealed a quantity of communist literature, copies of communist newspapers and a large number of copies of Action Française, the royalist newspaper.
General indignation was voiced by the holiday makers when they heard of the attempt to assassinate M. Millerand.
The bitter campaign of the communist papers against President Millerand and the government in the past few months is said by a majority of the evening newspapers to have been responsible for today's outrage. The papers demand that a bill providing the ministry of justice with a power against slanderous attacks on public men, be passed as soon as the chamber of deputies convenes.

CAUSES ARREST OF HIS WIFE ON MURDER CHARGE

A. L. Phillips Gives Information That Leads to Her Arrest

(By The Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Calif., July 14.—A. L. Phillips, clean cut in appearance, haggard of face, and with sunken eye and twitching hand showing the strain he was withstanding paced the sheriff's office today awaiting the return in custody from Tucson, Ariz., of his wife, who was arrested there for the murder of Mrs. Alberts Tremaine Meadows. The arrest was made after Phillips, who had aided his wife to flee Los Angeles, had determined to tell what he knew and then stand by the woman whose arrest was sure to follow.

Phillips said today that he had not slept since he learned of the tragedy late Tuesday, when his wife came home and sought his aid. He said he felt he ought to tell the truth, and he did, but later he decided he ought to give his story to the authorities, so he did.

Then he wrote his wife a long letter, to be delivered by Sheriff Treagar when the latter reaches Tucson, and in that letter, he pledged his support, his sympathy and his love, to his wife. Now he awaits her return and paces the office, paces the street in company with a deputy who has been assigned him because of his shaken condition, smokes innumerable cigarettes and seeks assurance and reassurance from kindly friends as to whether he did the right thing in yielding up his wife to the law.

Invariably, they tell him he did. He ponders a moment, then he asks anew.

DETECTIVES KILL ONE HOLDUP MAN AND CAPTURE TWO

One of Detectives is Shot in Shoulder During Battle

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 14.—One holdup man was killed, two others captured, and a detective seriously wounded today in a gun fight. Eugene Kunz, the dead, and F. K. Smith and Joseph Segeman, the two captured bandits, are said by the police to have been implicated in two sensational holdups staged here in the past week, and to have prison records of former arrests.

Sergeant McCarthy and squad of detectives saw a license number on a car reported stolen recently. The men in the automobile saw the detectives, and became suspicious and a race thru the south side by the two cars followed, but came to an end when the bandits' car crashed into a fence. The holdup men then opened fire, and Sergeant McCarthy, the first man to get out of the detectives' car, was shot in the shoulder. The detectives then opened fire, killing Kunz. Smith and Segeman surrendered.

Union spokesmen declared that the situation is bringing about a shortage period in the coal supply, that prices will continue to rise and remain high, and that the mine owners can pay the old wage rate, or even an increase.

Operators Vote to Accept
St. Louis, July 14.—The coal operators' association of the fifth and ninth districts of Illinois today voted to accept President Harding's plan for arbitration of the coal miners' strike, according to an announcement made by W. K. Kavanaugh, president of the association.

President Kavanaugh departed tonight with the scale committee of the association for Washington to attend the conference of bituminous coal operators called for Sunday to decide upon acceptance or rejection of the president's arbitration plan.

GLORIA SWANSON IN THE SPOTLIGHT

(By The Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 14.—Gloria Swanson, screen actress, did not disappoint the crowds which thronged Judge Rives' division of the probate department of the superior court today in an effort to see her. She was in court, but was not called upon to testify in the will contest involving her mother, widow of Matthew I. Burns, and beneficiary of the will which his blood relatives are seeking to have set aside, and attorneys for Mrs. Burns said it was unlikely that she would be asked to take the stand.

Charges that she and her mother had conspired to bring about the latter's marriage to Burns and later to secure a favorable will were dismissed.

Testimony offered today centered about the mental condition of Mr. Burns when he made the disputed will.

ILLINOIS CORN CROP WILL SHOW SLIGHT DECREASE

Forecast Shows Other Crops Will be Below Average

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 14.—A two per cent decrease in corn acreage with crop prospects near average, spring sown small grains, Irish potatoes and garden crops below average and other crops average or better with hay and fruit crops unusually favorable are the outstanding features of the July 1 report of the state-federal crop reporting service for Illinois, made public today by A. J. Surratt, agricultural statistician.

The June drought, erratic heat, insects and rust caused crops to show varying deterioration. There was little change in the favorable condition of hay and tree fruit and prospects of moderate losses in wheat and rye with a marked slump in the condition of spring sown small grains, potatoes, pasture, berry fruits and garden crops. Moderate temperature and rains relieved the condition of green crops.

Corn acreage is estimated at 8,998,000 acres, of which there are indications of a 303,966,000 bushel yield. The late planting handicap and the drought accounts for the estimated yield being 84 per cent, one point below average. Winter wheat and rye ripened rapidly. Rust and chinch bugs placed a part in the central and southern areas. Harvest is practically completed there.

Spring sown grains show a sharp slump and the outlook is below average. The weather, chinch bugs and rust contributed to the damage. Oats were most severely hit in the southern half. The state condition is estimated at 63 per cent.

The hay harvest is generally completed and yields are unusually. The condition is reported at 94 per cent against an average of 82 per cent. Clover and alfalfa crops are near normal with timothy less.

White potatoes suffered from drought and are below average; sweet potatoes are slightly above; field peas and beans deteriorated due to drought and tomatoes, cabbage and onions are little below average. Apple prospects are favorable, peach and grape prospects are excellent. Pear and cherry prospects are well above average but less favorable than apples and peaches.

The state corn acreage is estimated at 96 per cent of last year. Broom corn and sorghum cane for syrup show conditions above the average. The acreage of the former has been substantially increased while that of the latter has dropped slightly.

The average weight per fleece of wool for Illinois this year is 7.5 pounds, compared with the average of 7.6.

KENTUCKY FASTER IS NEAR DEATH

(By The Associated Press)
NADA, Ky., July 14.—So weak that he is unable to leave his bed, but steadily regaining food, William Rice today completed his sixty first day of continuous fasting. His strength is declining rapidly and death is said to be a matter of only a few days unless he accepts food.
Rice declares he receives food from a "spiritual fountain" and says he is tempted constantly by Satan to make use of earthly sustenance. He drinks considerable quantities of water.

The fast was begun May 13 when, Rice asserts, he was told by God in a vision that he should show his neighbors they should make personal sacrifices if they expect heavenly reward.

GENERAL TREND OF STRIKE SEEMS TO BE TOWARD PEACE

Jewell, Hooper, Healy Hold Four Hour Conference

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 14.—The second week of the railway shopmen's strike ended tonight while the railroad labor board, the shop crafts representatives and the railroad maintained silence regarding negotiations looking toward settlement of the walk-out.

A four hour conference between Chairman Hooper of the labor board, B. M. Jewell, head of the shopmen's organization and Timothy Healy, who has authorized a strike of 8,000 stationery firemen, engineers and oilers, ended tonight without a statement from any of the conferees. Chairman Hooper hurried to the conference after a meeting with L. F. Loree, president of the Delaware and Hudson railroad, and T. E. Crowley, vice president of the New York Central lines.

It was reported tonight in labor circles that the conference this afternoon concerned questions which the unions must settle among themselves before further negotiations looking toward the ending of the walkouts are held. Further conferences are in prospect, it was reported.

While the parley was under way there were indications elsewhere that the general trend of the strike situation was toward peace.

E. F. Grable, head of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers, who held a midnight conference here last night with Mr. Jewell, left for Washington where, it was said, he expected to see the president. He reiterated his previous statement that the 400,000 maintenance of way employees would not strike despite the fact that some of his men had joined in a sympathy strike with the shopmen. M. Grable indicated that the only contingency that might result in a strike was a determination on the part of the carriers to force maintenance of way men to do the work regularly done by the striking crafts.

Mr. Jewell expressed the opinion that the maintenance of way men would not join in the walk-out. From St. Paul, where shop craft representatives have been meeting with northwestern roads in an effort to reach an agreement, came an announcement from R. A. Henning, chairman of the shop crafts organization, that a settlement within 48 hours was possible.

More troops were ordered today to protect railroad property and employees. Soldiers were sent to Popular Bluff, Mo., to relieve troops already there, and Governor Davis of Ohio ordered troops mobilized for possible use in connection with the coal and rail strikes.

Mrs. Dusenberry of Literberry was a shopper here yesterday.

Issues of Strike Clearly Defined

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 14.—The issues involved in the railway shopmen's strike were clearly defined and discussed at length but no conclusions were reached as the result of a four hour conference today between representatives of the railroads, the shopmen and the railroad labor board, according to statements issued tonight by Chairman Hooper of the board and B. M. Jewell of the shopmen.

While Mr. Hooper did not indicate what action might be expected to follow today's conference, Mr. Jewell said that his meeting was not final and that further conferences might be expected.

Among the other conferees were several of Mr. Jewell's international presidents and vice presidents; Timothy Healy, president of the firemen and oilers' organization; H. E. Bryan, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad; Hale Holden, head of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; James German, president of the Rock Island, and C. L. Mackham of the Illinois Central.

The conference, according to some of those attending, was most heated. The railroad presidents and the union executives went to a hotel and met in separate rooms where Chairman Hooper conferred with each group separately. Ideas were exchanged and the issues discussed. Then railroad representatives conceded to some of the union chiefs' demands. Others were refused and the meeting ended when the union executives refused to discuss a settlement unless all their requests were met.

According to Mr. Hooper, the unions asked that the railroads discontinue contract system of farming out shop work, restore seven rules which had been altered by the labor board, restore the wages in effect before the cut by the labor board and establish national boards of adjustment. The union representatives also asked that seniority rights be restored to all strikers.

The carriers, according to Mr. Hooper's statement, suggested they would wipe out the contract system on all roads where it still exists and agreed to establish similar boards of adjustment similar to those already in effect for train and engine service men. They refused to restore seniority rights and maintained that wages and working rules both came under the jurisdiction of the labor board. They took the stand, according to Mr. Hooper, that the shop crafts were at liberty to petition the board for a re-hearing on these issues. The carriers suggested that they participate in this hearing and abide by the result. Mr. Jewell insisted on satisfactory modifications of wages and rules before he would terminate the strike. The executives declined to consider this matter except in connection with board re-hearings.

Mr. Jewell in his statement did not discuss the issues involved in today's conference but asserted that they were frankly discussed and no conclusion was reached. He blamed the financial controllers of the railroad for failure of the executives and the shop crafts to get together, asserting that the moneyed interests controlling the roads had embarked on an "anti-labor program."

OFFICERS FIND CLUE IN MURDER OF PEORIA WOMAN

Blood Stained Handkerchief is Found Near Scene of Crime

(By The Associated Press)
PEORIA, Ill., July 14.—A man's bloodstained handkerchief, with an embroidered monogram in one corner, may prove a clue to the identity of four masked men who Wednesday night clubbed to death Miss Sue Harris, 61, and then robbed her secluded country home near Mackinaw of $12. The handkerchief was found in a lane near the home, and special importance is attached to it because it was learned today that Miss Harris, using scissors, fought a death battle with the robbers.

A tire track apparently made by a small car is the only other clue to the third violent death which has occurred in what is known in Mackinaw as the "house of hidden gold." Rewards now total $1,500 and virtually everybody in Mackinaw is engaged in the hunt.

The "house of hidden gold," so-called because of the stories circulated about treasurers being hidden in it, was built more than 50 years ago, and was at the time the center of social and political life in central Illinois. Five years ago C. P. Harris, brother of the slain woman, was found hanging in the barn, a victim of his own hands, as the result of a legal battle over the land on which the mansion is located.

A year later, G. O. Darst, named administrator of the estate, took his life in the same manner. Rumors were that a large fire place contained a secret treasure box designed by the builder, the father of Adlai Stevenson, a pioneer of Bloomington and former vice president of the United States.

START INQUIRY OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS OF CHICAGO FIRM

Receiver Believes Firm Will Pay 100 Cents on the Dollar

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 14.—Inquiry was started today in the financial affairs of Nast & Company, La Salle street brokers, named in a bankruptcy proceeding filed before Federal Judge Carpenter. Attorneys for the petitioners claimed the liabilities will run between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 involving about 2,000 creditors in Chicago alone.

The Chicago Title & Trust Company was named temporary receiver and the brokerage firm has been suspended from the Chicago Stock Exchange and Board of Trade. General Abel Davis, vice president of the Chicago Title & Trust Company said after a hasty examination of the company's books that he had hopes that creditors might receive 100 cents on the dollar.

Miss E. R. Nast, a niece of the head of the firm, was one of the three petitioners, in the bankruptcy proceedings and another was said to be an employee.

GOVERNMENT IS STANDING FIRM IN R. R. STRIKE

Will Use Every Force to Keep Transportation Moving

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 14.—While optimism as to the outcome of the railroad strike was reflected at the White House today, there was further evidence that the administration intends to keep a firm grasp on the situation and that every force at the command of the government will be utilized to insure maintenance of necessary interstate transportation.

Cabinet members who met with President Harding in the regular Friday session placed their main reliance on the ability of Chairman Hooper of the railroad labor board to find a solution to the problem. The meeting was understood to have been devoted largely to discussion of the rail and coal strikes and to the administration attitude in the event of certain contingencies.

The president was said to hold the view that, should government operation of carriers become necessary, it would not abridge the liberty of railroad workers to be drafted for service in the position in which they have had experience. Whatever discussion occurred along this line, however, was said to be on a strictly hypothetical basis.

Cabinet members brought voluminous reports, Attorney General Daugherty had numerous telegrams bearing on the situation at points where disorders have developed, and reports on the organization of the special force of deputy marshals. Postmaster general work, was said to have reported the bulk of the mail movement unaffected by the strike.

Further requests for federal protection reached the war department from Denison, where the federal receiver of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad was understood to hold the view that all trains would have to stop within three days unless protection was given to shopmen working on vital repairs to rolling stock.

Possible use of federal troops to protect railroad employees remaining on their jobs was deprecated in union circles as tending to aggravate the situation. This view was expressed by J. P. Noonan, president of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who charged that mail trains were being withdrawn deliberately by the railroads to force government action.

President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor also declared there was no justification for use of troops, particularly unless and until requested by the state authorities. Decision on whether federal troops would be sent to preserve order at Denison apparently was being withheld at the war department until the inspector general of the eighth corps area, ordered to the scene today, had reported on the situation.

A THOUGHT

These are the things that ye shall do: Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbor; Execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates.—Zachariah 8:16.

Truth and fidelity are the pillars of the temple of the world; when these are broken, the fabric falls and crushes all to pieces.—Feltbam.

Greene county authorities promise to use every effort to punish those guilty of applying tar and feathers to a roundhouse worker at Roadhouse one night recently. Certainly the officials owe it to the commonwealth to make vigorous prosecution for this outrage.

According to report, five candidates to election to the Mexican Congress have been assassinated recently. Another instance of the bullet taking the place of the ballot, and another reason why we should thank Providence we live in the good old U. S. A.

As could be naturally expected, southern senators and congressmen have seized upon the Herrin affair as an example of greater brutality than southern lynching evidence. Now, however, there is some prospect that a thorough inquiry into the Herrin killings will be made thru the office of Attorney General Brandage and the guilty yet may be brought to trial. If this is done it will be quite in contrast to the south, where mob leaders very seldom give answer before the law.

There is definite prospect that the Epworth League institute of Illinois may decide upon Jacksonville as the permanent summer meeting place. If this is done, each summer about 300 delegates will come to the city for a 10 days' conference. Headquarters will be maintained at Nichols park or Mauvaisterre park, and in fact it is the attractions of these places that have made the choice of this city likely.

With the erection of a permanent building for assembly purposes at the park, there is no reason why similar annual gatherings could not be secured for Jacksonville. With the park development that is planned for the early years it will become even more attractive than at present. The park and lake can be made a distinct financial asset if the citizens of Jacksonville are willing to follow up the idea.

The past six months shows an increase in the number of murders in Chicago. Nevertheless it is worthy of note that during the month of June the big city 123 persons were sentenced to penal institutions. Of this number 54 were sent to the penitentiary and 13 to reformatories.

The numbers are significant because so largely increased since the authorities of Cook county have united in a special drive against criminals.

ADVERTISING

"I'm doing very well. Trade is good. I'm slowing up on advertising expenditures," said a merchant recently. On the other hand, we see one of the most prosperous publishing concerns in the country spending hundreds of thousands of dollars on page advertisements in the newspapers, while controlling a circulation of millions in its own publications.

Which is right—the merchant or the publisher? Consider this motto: "If you want a good business, advertise and get it. If you have a good business, advertise and keep it." There lies the fundamental truth about advertising. It is a necessary business utility all the time.

The merchant quoted above does not refuse to purchase new goods when his stock is sold out. He must have them to satisfy his customers. Why should he cease advertising when the public comes to his store as a result of his advertising? In the competition of business publicity is always necessary. The merchant does not employ his show windows and show cases when business is good. His advertisement is a show window in which he describes his stock instead of exhibiting it.

BORROWING MONEY.

Rich men play different systems. John D. Rockefeller has been quoted as attributing his wealth to his ability at borrowing money. Henry Ford doesn't believe in borrowing.

The Ford Motor Company originally was capitalized at $100,000. Only about $28,000 of this was subscribed in cash.

That was the only money that ever went into Ford's business from the outside. Additions to the operating capital have been created by the Ford business—taken from profits.

Three years ago, Edsel Ford bought out the minority stockholders. They had 41 per cent of the Ford stock, for which Edsel paid "about 75 millions," according to Henry Ford, writing in McClure's Magazine.

In other words, an original investment of $11,620 sold for $75,000,000.

Ford climbed to success without borrowing much.

Henry Ford, when he decided to make autos instead of watches, had wonderful vision and organizing genius, also an almost superhuman genius at mechanical production.

He also had, however, an easier opportunity than John D. Rockefeller.

Both men created industries. Rockefeller had, as his greatest handicap, this problem: In the early days of the oil industry, the price of crude oil was on worse than a gambling basis. It sold for $20 a barrel and 20 cents a barrel—both in the same year. The price of refined oil products fluctuated correspondingly.

Rockefeller's big job was to "stabilize" the oil industry—regulate production and prices. He succeeded, thru the organization he built up. But in those early days, there were not enough profits to supply the gigantic capital needed by Standard Oil.

Rockefeller borrowed heavily. He had to. And the ones from whom he borrowed made no mistake. You will find this out when you buy Standard stocks.

How to make money. It is confusing, with Ford advising against going into debt, Rockefeller advising borrowing.

Back of this is an important "Hunch" for Mr. Average Man.

The hunch is this: There is no cut-and-dried rule for accumulating wealth. A method or system that will work in one industry or situation will fail financially in another.

No two problems are exactly the same. Nor have any two problems the same solution.

Most of us are imitators. We select a successful man as our ideal—and try to duplicate his system. Failure is inevitable when we back the wrong system. Don't hitch your wagon to the wrong star.

AL BARNES ANIMAL SHOW PLEASED PUBLIC

Big Crowds Witnessed Interesting Performances—Tents Go Up in Lincoln Today.

The Al J. Barnes circus and animal show came to Jacksonville Friday. The arrival was in the early morning hours and the splendid parade moved promptly at the appointed time. There was a large crowd in attendance for both afternoon and evening performances and as was true of a former visit, the shows had the approval of the people.

The show trains came to Jacksonville over the Burlington from Canton and were started at an early hour this morning over the Chicago & Alton for Lincoln.

Animals predominate in the Barnes shows and they are there in great number and variety. In fact, it was a wonderful show of trained beasts and all thru the two and a half hour program there is something doing in the three rings. The absence of acrobats is noticeable and instead the program of animal stunts has been multiplied many times. Skilled trainers give marvelous exhibitions of what can be done with animals, supposedly of a very low order of intelligence.

While an exhibition of trained horses is not nearly so unusual as that of some of the animals in yesterday's program, Jacksonville audiences found special pleasure in viewing the horses. The Barnes circus carries a wonderful group of horses and they make a very large contribution to the fine exhibit.

Persons who saw the show here two or three years ago declared yesterday that it was even better than before in many ways. There is nothing cheap or tawdry about the Barnes show and it will always receive a cordial welcome in Jacksonville on return visits.

EPWORTH LEAGUE MAY COME EACH YEAR

Executive Board of State Institute Said to Look With Favor on Jacksonville's Invitation.

T. V. Hopper of this city has just returned from Shelbyville where he went to represent Jacksonville on the executive board of the Epworth League Institute of the Methodist conference of Illinois.

When the matter of a permanent meeting place for the annual gathering of the Institute was brought up for consideration, Mr. Hopper strongly presented the claims of Jacksonville, its many conveniences and natural advantages.

Mr. Hopper's claims met with considerable approval and propositions containing the Institute's requirements will be submitted to the Chamber of Commerce for its early consideration. The Institute commissioners visited here when the conference was in session at Nichols park in 1921 and reported favorably on this city as a logical meeting place.

Several cities are bidding strongly for the conference, but if Jacksonville is successful it will mean that about 300 young people will come here each year, to remain a week or ten days in session transacting the affairs of the League.

YOUNG'S GARAGE

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL HOME DEPARTMENT

Our Aim—"A Bible in every Sunday School and God honored in every home on the North American continent." If the church has a thriving home department it is a great assistance to the pastor; for good visitors are equal to an assistant deaconess, as they visit the sick and shut-ins. The home is interested in the church and many of the home department members become members of the regular Sunday school. An interested member of the home department will be interested in instructing younger members of the family in the U. S. and urging also their attendance. It gives one more chance to get people in the home to be interested in the life of the church. All the church in the S. S. And why should we not?

We now have the Bible school so expanded and adjusted to family and busy age conditions, that a school has adult classes, a home department and a cradle roll, a place in it, a niche, if you please, out to fit and just suit every member of the family, the entire church from the grandfather and grandmother in the home department to the grandchild in the cradle roll. Then why not get into this niche? All that is left to be done is to do it, and that can be done easily by those who will only believe it, and go to it.

Empty niches do not look well anywhere. They have a sort of half done look that suggests future possibilities and present neglect. Get the vision. One good vision is worth a hundred dreams. People are asleep when they dream dreams; and when they are awake behold it is gone it is dashed in and it is dashed out, and that was the end of it. Not so with a good vision. It is only wide awake people who see them.

A vision lasts. It arouses to action. It spurs one onward, upward and rings with the word, "Excelsior." It gets into heart and soul lays hold on timidity, fear doubt, hesitancy, procrastination, casts them overboard and clears the deck for action. A vision is worth paying for, and in religious work, better worth praying for, because they are so much more likely to come in that way. Visions of great accomplishments in church work, mostly come down from heaven, so it is well to go up there after them. Strange how much higher a man can reach toward heaven when he is down on his knees, than when he is up on his feet.

To get a vision one should first look up and then look ahead. The relations of the home department to the S. S., as regards rank corresponds to any other department the Junior, the primary, etc.

I think a member of a church has a wonderful opportunity to help the pastor in the work of the home department. We even have a more wonderful chance than if belonging to the pastor's family. I often feel as if I have the advantage even of the pastor's wife for necessarily she must move when the pastor moves, and I can remain on the field and knowing the field can work to better advantage.

In visiting families I can have the pleasure of enrolling some of the members in the missionary societies of the church, and of telling new families of different classes where the members of the families should be and I certainly appreciate having the privilege. Remember that a certain amount of opposition is a great help to a person. "Kites rise against and not with the wind."

"If you think you are beaten you are
If you think you dare not you don't.
If you'd like to win but you think you can't,
It is almost certain you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you've lost;
For out in the world you'll find Success begins with a fellow's will."

It's all in the state of the mind.

The home departments of Jacksonville have many very faithful workers. Encouragement from pastors and Sunday school superintendents would be very valuable. It seems in some churches that not much encouragement is given to these workers, who are such conscientious toilers. We are all in the same cause, whether working for the cradle roll or for the home department and the best of spirit should prevail. At the time of the annual meeting the banner could not be awarded as the reports were not all in. During the past year, records show that Grace church home department has the largest of members on the honor roll, which means a contribution for each Sunday and also a study of each lesson; therefore they have the banner for this year. It is earnestly requested, that an accurate account for the coming year may be kept in each church, by the workers so that the banner may be given to the deserving church.

(By Mrs. Charles Hopper, president of the Home Department and Cradle Roll Union of Jacksonville and vicinity.)

NEAR SCANDAL AT TOLEDO MEETING

Judges Resign After Decision on Second Heat of Fort Miami Stake—Officials of Driving Club Call Off All Bets.

TOLEDO, July 14—Today's Grand Circuit meeting was marred by a near scandal.

In the second heat of the Fort Miami stake the favorite, Prince Loree, poorly driven for the first half, for the second time, came from behind and apparently won from Princess Etawah in a tight finish. The judges placed Princess Etawah first and Prince Loree second.

The spectators shouted in protest and McDewitt, driver of Prince Loree, added fuel to the fire by climbing into the judge's stand and talking to the crowd.

When the race was over the Toledo Driving Club caused it to be announced that all pools and result book tickets sold on the race were declared off and the money refunded and that all mutual money bets on the second heat would be refunded. Presiding judge Joe McGraw, Washington, Pa., and associate judge Chester Stands, Columbus, and L. C. Webb, Mason, Michigan, at once resigned.

"We do not think the judges were right. That's all there is to it," said Secretary George Bryce, of the driving club.

It was a Tommy Murphy afternoon, the Poughkeepsie driver winning the Fort Miami stake with Princess Etawah and the free for all pace with Roy Grattan after Single G., had been drawn owing to lameness. Roy Grattan paced the first heat in 2:02 1-4, the fastest mile this year.

Princess Etawah took the first two heats in the stake event, due chiefly to Mike McDewitt's poor teaming behind Prince Loree. The double gaffed champion won the third heat the slower of the three and took second money.

The Cresceus, for two year old trotters, was won by James Revere, in straight heats, second mile in 2:11 1-4.

The 2:12 pace with eleven starters was won by Minnie Williams with Minerva Gentry second.

Lee Tide, driven by Cox, won the 2:20 trot after finishing 11 in the first heat because of a bad break.

FRIENDS SAY HE IS NOW LOOKING YEARS YOUNGER

Carpenter Declares He Used to Be So Played Out from Stomach Trouble He Could Hardly Drive a Nail—Praises Tanlac for 20-Pound Gain.

"Since I took Tanlac my friends declare I look thirty years younger, and I am just full of energy," said William P. Garrison, well-known carpenter and builder, 28 S. Albany Ave., Chicago, Ill.

"I was just about played out and so weak, nervous and trembly I could hardly hold a nail still long enough to drive it. I hardly had the appetite to eat anything and no matter how little or how light the food, I would suffer fearfully from indigestion and heartburn. My head ached like it would split, and my back hurt so bad I could hardly stoop over."

"But Tanlac has relieved me of all my troubles and I have gained twenty pounds. I have a big appetite and I can hold my own with the best men in my business. I recommend Tanlac as long as I live."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Adv.

The World is Working for You

The manufacturer who makes your shoes is working for you. So is the store that sells you shoes, your grocer, your clothier and every concern or person who makes or sells anything you buy.

Often these people have messages for you. They want to tell you about new goods, new styles, new prices or other new things you should know about.

They can't speak to you personally because they have so many customers to serve. So they put their messages in the newspaper in the form of advertisements.

It is to your interest to read the advertisements. They are published for your benefit. They keep you informed as to what these folks are doing for you. They help you buy the right goods at the right time and to make the most of your money.

Moreover, you'll find that business concerns that tell you frankly what they are doing are the most dependable. Stores that advertise are progressive stores that have something real to say to you. Manufacturers who advertise their products have confidence in them, because it does not pay to advertise anything that is not good.

Reading advertisements is both interesting and profitable

Mexican Bandit Visits American Oil Camp for Tribute

Gorrasve, famous Mexican bandit (arrow), snapped as he entered the Aquada camp of the Cortez Oil Corporation to demand 15,000 pesos to promote a revolution. On his left, hands on hips, is the famous "The Yaqui." Fifty Americans in the camp were held as prisoners, but were not molested.

OLD PROFESSOR SEES AMBITION FULFILLED

Gives Fortune for Telescope for Ohio Wesleyan University—Will have no Material Wealth but will be Rich in Happiness.

DELEWARE, O.—Within the next few years, there will arise on Observatory hill on the campus at Ohio Wesleyan University here, a huge concrete bulk, with a long finger pointing skyward. It will be the third largest telescope in the world.

At that time, an old man may look from the doorway of an out-of-date brick house near the great instrument, and recognize in it a monument to his perseverance and the dominating ideal of a life that will have passed the four-score and ten mark.

If he is there to see it, he will be comparatively penniless, as goes but rich in happiness.

If he is not there to see it, he has said he will be just as satisfied—because he knows it will be there, whether he is or not.

Professor Hiram M. Perkins, now 89 years of age, started mathematics and astronomy years ago at Ohio Wesleyan, a poor man. During the long years of teaching since then he had amassed a fortune of close to $200,000 by fortunate investments. But he will die a poor man. Nearly every cent that he has earned and scraped together will be represented in the "third largest telescope in the world."

A story that passes understanding is unfolded in the simple announcement by trustees of Ohio Wesleyan that 250,000 has been contributed for the installation of the telescope. All but $75,000 of the quarter of million dollars was given by Prof. Perkins; the remainder by his sister and brother-in-law.

Professor Perkins has lived with one dominating goal—to be able to turn enough money over to Ohio Wesleyan University for the purchase of such a telescope. Not only did he devote all his income from his investments to his fund, but he often contributed to it from his meager salary as a college professor, he and Mrs. Perkins trimming their household budget to make the sacrifice possible.

And the story of self sacrifice is not on a par with the efforts of Professor Perkins to dodge recognition for his remarkable gift.

"I don't care whether I live to see the telescope and the new observatory completed or not," he is quoted by Professor C. C. Crump, now head of the department of astronomy. The knowledge that the University is to have them is sufficient.

Professor Perkins gives the telescope at the urge of an ideal that has held away in his whole life—the belief that the study of the stars outclasses all others in teaching the majesty and power of God and in inculcating principles of true religion.

Under the terms of his gift, the telescope is to be used first for the instruction of all the students of the University; second, it is to be turned over to the public at regular intervals, and after that it is to be used for research.

WELL SATISFIED WITH COOPERATION AT HERRIN

MARION, Ill., July 14—Attorney General Brundage expressed himself as well satisfied with the co-operation promised him in the intended investigation of the Herrin massacre, after a conference this afternoon with State's Attorney Duly and Sheriff Thaxton.

The attorney general told the Associated Press that he found Mr. Duly overly anxious to prosecute and participants in the riots to the fullest extent of the law; and that Sheriff Thaxton promised to assist as fully as possible.

The grand jury investigation of the slaughter will be deferred several weeks to gather more substantial evidence, Mr. Brundage added.

MISS YATES TELLS ABOUT OVERSEAS WORK

Daughter of Illinois Congressman Now Aiding Kinsman at Chateau Thierry.

A Washington, D. C. paper gives the following paragraphs with reference to Miss Dorothy Yates, daughter of Congressman and Mrs. Richard Yates, who is now at Chateau Thierry. Miss Yates will do reconstruction work there for several months under the direction of her uncle, Dr. Julian Wadsworth, who is in charge of the Methodist Memorial there. The paragraphs follow:

When Miss Dorothy Yates, pretty daughter of Congressman and Mrs. Richard Yates, reached Chateau Thierry, where she is to do reconstruction work, she found the entire place in fete. Well, no, it wasn't entirely in her honor, but because the little town was celebrating the three hundredth anniversary of La Fontaine the famous French poet and writer of fables, who had the forethought to be born there. However, the happy coincidence gave a touch of the picturesque to Miss Yates' first glimpse of provincial life in the quaint old French city, where her lot is to be cast for the next few months.

She arrived to find Chateau Thierry thronged with people from the country round about, and the streets lined with banners. In the evening there was a torchlight procession and next day—Sunday—after church services, there was a procession of the children wearing costumes illustrating the fables of Jean de La Fontaine on which every French child—and many a child of English or American extraction—is raised. In the afternoon the children assembled on the castle ramparts to present the more familiar fables in pantomime and recite the favorite verses of La Fontaine. A street fair and music were features of the celebration, concerts being given by famous artists from Paris, and in the evenings there were fireworks sent up from floats on the river.

Miss Yates went to Chateau Thierry to be with her uncle, Dr. Julian S. Wadsworth, and help him with the work of habilitation he is doing under the aegis of the Methodist memorial. They have taken what was once a great hotel, a wreck of a place from shell fire, and have restored it for their headquarters. And they are undertaking not only the physical rehabilitation of the town but the more difficult task of helping the inhabitants, men and women with spirits broken by war and its horrid aftermath, to help themselves. Miss Yates is to teach English in the little school which has grown up in connection with the work—the pupils being mostly the children that are daily left in the care of the missions while their mothers are at work.

G. A. R. STATE OFFICERS VISITED LOCAL POST

Local Veterans Entertained Group of Visitors Friday—Days of War Reviewed When Camp Fire Was Held.

Friday, July 14 will long be pleasantly remembered as a red letter day in the history of Matt Starr Post G. A. R. and W. R. C. of this city, when they were visited by State Com. Bartlett and a good sized deputation of veterans and the Relief Corps of Springfield.

The veterans present were Com. A. E. Bartlett of the state, M. H. Keithly, R. B. Hieronymous, John F. Hagan, Henry Hofferkamp, W. H. Sammons, Thomas Yocum, Joseph A. DeFrates, H. B. Davidson, John Grimsley and H. H. Biggs; among the ladies present were Mrs. Sara Ervin, Mrs. Sallie Hopper, Mrs. W. H. Sammon, Miss Lou Willows, Miss Willows, Miss Biggs, Mrs. Charles Bisch, Mrs. Fannie Smith, Mrs. J. H. Hagen. On arrival in the city at one o'clock on the Wabash they were met by a committee of the Matt Starr Post consisting of S. W. Nichols, chairman; John Minter and L. Goheen.

Mrs. S. B. Gray and John Minter were on hand with their automobiles while Norman Dewees and J. A. Weber kindly volunteered the use of their cars in transporting the guests to the Dunlap where dinner was enjoyed and after a rest of an hour or so all repaired to the hall where a genuine old time camp fire was enjoyed.

The attendance much exceeded the expectation of the local body as every seat in the hall was occupied. It was truly an impressive sight to see the array of gray haired veterans who had marched under the old flag which they had sworn to preserve and for whose honor they so valiantly fought. While some of them showed indications of age all were remarkably vigorous and sprightly, and everyone present entered fully into the spirit of the occasion.

After routine business of the Post had been disposed of the meeting was turned over to the entertainment and a royal time followed. Of the excellent speeches that were made only a short outline is practicable.

The first one called on was Com. Bartlett who said in part: "I am indeed delighted to be here because the ties which bind us together were welded on the field of battle, in camp and on many a weary march."

"It was the men of '61 to '65 who made it possible for the whole country to be one and united. Had the veterans not gone out in those early days there would have been no country to take the part of Cuba in '98, nor to help out the cause of freedom in the great world war and crush the wicked Hun."

"How long our order will last is known only to God who is merciful to prolong it as long as He has. There are in our ranks cripples and invalids and yet there are many still able and vigorous, performing the duties of daily life. We have lived thru the greatest period the world has ever known."

Tells of Pressing Need

"One thing should receive the attention of our order; that is the teaching of history in the public schools of our country. It is with pain and regret that I note the adoption of a resolution by the Confederate Veterans at Richmond, charging Abraham Lincoln with the responsibility for the civil war. It is probably fair to say that it was due more to the urgency of the daughters of the confederacy than to the old men, who adopted the resolution out of deference to the ladies."

"It is also reprehensible that the south in its text books teach the children the righteousness, so-called, of the pernicious doctrine of state rights. That doctrine was forever settled at Appomattox and children should not be taught that it is right, and the matter should be taken up by the National encampment. Even the schools in the north are not wholly free from criticism in this respect. You showed your patriotism during the dark days of the rebellion, and you should show it now in these respects."

"Although many of us are yet hearty and vigorous the days of our order are rapidly drawing to a close. The shadows are lengthening toward the east and taps are being sounded daily for many comrades. Let us be true to each other, true to our country and to our mater, that in the grand review above we may be worthy to take a prominent part."

Tells of Hardships

Col. Davidson of Springfield spoke next. He told graphically of some of the engagements in which they took part, the hardships endured and victories won. R. B. Hieronymous of Springfield, member of the 114th, of which Comrade Goheen was a member, said that 53 years ago the battle of Tupalo took place. Col. Judah and Lt. Col. King were in command of the regiment. The union army had been badly worsted at Guntown but at Tupalo they avenged the defeat. Forrest was the rebel commander in both cases. The union soldiers endured great hardships. The speaker's brother walked 150 miles without shoes but made no complaint.

Comrade John Minter told in a pleasing manner of the various engagements in which his battery took part. At Peach Tree creek where the losses were so heavy and where they buried two rebel brigadier generals and others of the confederate side. He told also by request of his accurate long shot which so pleased and surprised General Osterholt.

Com. Yocum then pleased the audience with an old time war song based on the fight at Guntown and Tupalo.

Com. Bartlett again spoke briefly urging that every effort possible be made to induce civil war veterans to become members of the Grand Army.

Other Speakers

Mrs. Inman of Springfield next spoke with great acceptance. She told of the time Admiral Dewey visited this city and paid tribute to a number of prominent Jacksonville persons and the pleasure she had experienced at being present.

Com. Schaub said he enlisted in April 1861 for three months and then later in August enlisted for three years. His company went out with 134 men and came back with 28 and he the only commissioned officer.

Com. Keithly, adjutant of Stevenson Post, Springfield, spoke briefly and told a thrilling story of the wartime days.

Com. Yocum again sang, by request. He remarked that in 1860 there were 34 stars in the U. S. Flag and the rebellion removed 13 and the boys went down and put them back.

Mrs. Angie Weber, president of the Relief Corps, spoke briefly welcoming the visitors and expressing her pleasure at being present.

Mrs. Marsh, past deputy, spoke urging all efforts be put forth to recruit members for the Grand Army.

H. H. Biggs of Springfield spoke briefly. W. H. Sammons told how he swam a river in cold weather to carry dispatches.

Miss Biggs, president of Stevenson Post Corps, spoke briefly.

Com. L. Goheen of the 114th told in a pleasing manner of some of his experiences. Com. Bartlett expressed the thanks of the visitors for the manner in which they had been entertained, and told of the great pleasure all experienced and tendered a cordial invitation to members of Matt Starr Post and Relief Corps to return the visit.

A short time was then spent socially and the members dispersed to the hotels or their homes.

The little fellow was taken into the show and the tragedy ended in joy.

John Black Leads Golfers at Glencoe

GLENCOE, Ill., July 14.—John Black, of the Claremont Club, Oakland, Cal., a little Scotchman with a bag of rusty clubs and nothing in the way of conventional golf clothes, today swept thru the first half of the 72 hole national open golf tournament over the Skokie course and tonight was well in the front of the world's greatest link celebrities—many of them only old enough to be his sons—in the fight for the American golf championship. Incidentally, he clipped a niblick into the 15th cup this afternoon for an eagle two.

Playing a game that hardly could be surpassed for both steadiness and brilliance, Black made the 36 holes of today's play in 142 strokes, two less than his nearest rival, William Mehlhorn, of Shreveport, La., professional, and three better than the third scores returned by Walter Hagen, of Detroit, holder of the British open championship and Gene Sarazen, of Pittsburgh.

Following in order were Bobby Jones, Atlanta, Ga., amateur, with an international reputation who scored 146; Lloyd Gullickson, Dekalb, Ill., professional, 147; "Chick" Evans, famous amateur, Laurie Ayton, local professional and Mike Brady, Detroit, with 148 each, and Jim Barnes, present open title holder, with 149.

Among dozens of other famous players, besides thru Blacks great club swinging, were Abe Mitchell and George Duncan, British professionals, Jack Hutchison, of Chicago, formerly British open golf champion; Jesse Guilford, of Boston, National Hunter, former British amateur title holder.

EX-SERVICE MEN ATTENDED CIRCUS

Eighty ex-service men were in the crowd at the Al G. Barnes circus Friday afternoon. Of the number six came from Oak Lawn and the others from the unit at Jacksonville State hospital. W. T. Harmon, who has charge of a special K. C. educational and recreational fund, sent a telegram to E. E. Henderson, commander of the local post of the American Legion, suggesting that arrangements be made. Mr. Henderson took the matter up with the circus management and then arranged for the attendance of the ex-service men.

It goes without saying that every one of the group thoroughly enjoyed the event.

A gas pipe under the side walk in front of the Hass Electric company was accidentally lighted yesterday about noon. The men on a paying job nearby were unable to extinguish the blaze for two hours.
